

I encourage you to leave XM or any other satellite radio service alone. The ability to obtain locally provided information is a valuable asset to me since I can get instant updates on things like traffic and weather without the hassle of waiting several minutes for the local radio broadcasters to finish talking or subjecting me to commercial advertising that I don't care to hear.
Please LEAVE THIS ALONE!